

Columbus's ERP evaluation checklist for agile and resilient business operations

 Microsoft Dynamics 365

As an ERP migration and optimization partner, we have the expertise to help you identify the features and capabilities of an AI-powered, cloud ERP solution that allows you to operate securely and is customizable to meet your unique business needs.

Customizability

Does the solution offer low code tools your IT team can use with us to customize processes and features to meet your needs?

Yes No

Scalability

Can the system create a modern, composable infrastructure that allows you to adopt innovative technology (i.e., AI) without replacing existing systems?

Yes No

Does the ERP easily integrate and work with other IT systems using standardized processes and connectors?

Yes, all systems Yes, but only some systems No

Can all employees use the solution regardless of geography or device while remaining compliant with regional requirements?

Yes, it is fully accessible No, only select regions

Security and reliability

What types of security measures does the solution provider offer?

Cybersecurity Physical management
 Endpoint security All of the above Other

What is the solution provider's uptime service-level agreement (SLA)?

Deployment

Does the solution provider offer additional guidance and training services to accelerate deployment timelines and support user adoption?

Yes No

Microsoft Dynamics 365 checks all these boxes. Columbus can help you migrate to the cloud with AI-powered Dynamics 365 to unlock the agility needed to lead the way in today's rapidly evolving marketplace. Contact us today to get started today: Get in touch with our team.

info@columbus.com - www.columbus.com

See a comprehensive list of Dynamics 365 benefits in the Forrester TEI report